What Chung Wah Community Care is doing:

- Refreshing a new COVID training for all staff.
- Staff will go through a COVID-19 health check before providing services and call each client/participant to go through the COVID-19 health check.
- All staff will be provided with RAT and have a RAT test when necessary.
- All staff will be wearing a mask during service.
- Due to COVID-19 safety requirements, service hours may need to be adjusted.

How you can help to prevent the spread of coronavirus:

- Continue to observe hand hygiene and cough etiquette.
- Wear a mask when receiving service.
- Watch the linked video to learn how to wear and remove a medical mask:
